

NEPA family

media kit 2019

A proven resource designed to directly reach your target market.

For seventeen years, Northeast Pennsylvania Family Magazine (NEPA Family) has provided positive parenting articles, helpful directories, a robust calendar of events, fun giveaways and so much more.

Distribution & Readership...

- NEPA Family Magazine offers advertisers a powerful and economic way to reach their target audience: individuals between the ages of 24-55 (and older due to grandparents occasionally snagging the magazines). The majority of our readers are parents and/or caregivers with children from birth through high school.
- Our Magazine conveniently arrives into the homes of children who attend public and private elementary schools, preschools and childcare centers throughout Luzerne and Lackawanna Counties by way of their backpacks. This direct form of distribution is proven to increase advertiser visibility.
- The bi-monthly, complimentary Magazine is available at more than 325 locations with approximately 22,000 issues being delivered directly into homes (via our partner schools) and into strategically-located businesses, restaurants and boutiques throughout northeast PA.
